

HAND HYGIENE DAY CELEBRATED ON 5TH MAY 2017

Hand Hygiene day was celebrated on 05/05/2017 in PGIMER, Auditorium organised by Dept of Microbiology. There were approximately 200 participants who signed the pledge for hand hygiene and actively participated in all the interactive session. The programme started with the poster competition followed by inauguration by Addl DGHS, Director PGIMER and MS, Dr A K Gadpayle which was followed by scientific sessions. There was also a quiz competition on hand hygiene and hospital infection control which comprised of multiple choice questions and practical demonstrations. Students of Kendriya Vidyalaya, Gole Market were sensitized on importance of hand hygiene and they also participated in the poster competition. Winners of various session were announced at the end of session and certificates and prizes were awarded for the same. The programme was covered by Doordarshan, telecasted in DD News and uploaded on twitter.

