

DR. Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital, New Delhi

Duties and responsibilities of Technical Supervisor

*Technical Supervisor is responsible to the H O D cardiology for the management of the E.C.G and other cardiology facilities in various locations in the hospital.

1. Technical Supervisor is responsible to the Technical officer cardiology for maintenance of Technical work. Technical Supervisor will also perform the other duties mentioned below.
2. Supervision of working of the Senior & Jr. Technologist.
3. Supervision of E.C.G work and procedures like TMT, HOLTER, CATH STUDY, PTCA, PTMC STRESS ECHO etc. performed at different facilities of cardiology.
4. Assigning the duties to all technical staff of cardiology.
5. To insure all cardiac equipments (investigative or diagnostic) are running in good condition by checking him/her self time to time and maintaining log book & record of repairing & servicing of equipments .
6. Do necessary arrangement for repairing of faulty cardiac equipments as early as possible.
7. Conduct short training program to upgrade the knowledge of technical staff of cardiology regarding new sophisticated cardiac equipments.
8. Looking after the administrative work related to technical staff & equipment of cardiology department.
9. Counseling and guidance of technical staff of cardiology for their career progression.
10. Planning development new area in cardiology and purchase of new equipments.
11. Any other duties assigned by HOD Cardiology.

HOD (Cardiology)

Deputy Director (Admin.)

Medical Superintendent