UNDEXTAKING

I, ____________________________, son/daughter of ____________________________, have been informed that as per Medical Council of India guidelines, the minimum eligibility criteria to appear in all University examination is Attendance – 75% and internal assessment – 35%.

Further, as per the decision of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University in March 2017, which came into effect from MBBS Batch 2017, any student who is detained for the Annual Examinations due to failure to meet the above minimum criteria, shall not be allowed to appear in the supplementary to be held in the same year.

Hence all detained students can only appear in the subsequent year’s Annual Examination.

I have noted the above policy and will not hold the Post Graduate Institute of Medical Education & Research authorities responsible, in case of such an eventuality arising due to my poor performance or inadequate attendance.
